[illegible]

John Andrew Pease

Wm. Galun Esq.

[The page contains dense, handwritten text in cursive script, which is largely illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side. The text appears to be organized into several paragraphs, with some lines being more prominent than others. There are also some faint, larger words or phrases that might be part of the original text, such as "I have" and "I am".]
