My dear Mr Bleeck

By this mail I am sending to Lucknow Gun drop which should have gone in May, and as it is so late I am sending the rest up to the 26th June. Drawing £3.10 balance for April and £16 for May & June in all £19.10.0 which I hope is correct.

Gun hopes that new in Lonn new forwarded to you last week. There are only 23 not 24. There were 21 in the store and two at Mr Watts house.

I believe I answered your Post Card, but in case I did not, but thought it would be better to have more insurance on the house, and less on the furniture. I have not yet succeeded in getting any one to attend to the roof, they promise to come but don't do so.

You will be glad to hear Eliza's affairs are settled, she is to have the entire charge of the child, Eliza at present is staying with George & his wife at Krugersdorp, she likes them they have a small home, but comfortable, she likes Ina and thinks I will be my friend

Julia has when we meet, she seems thoroughly to understand George. So I hope it is all for the best he is married. By this time your letter and I dare must have found you, I can just imagine how happy you all are to be together again.

Please tell Miss Lucy I will try and write to her next week. On the month of May I visit a house at "Mizzenberg," so they Harry myself and the children went down, I was there three weeks, and really enjoyed the time I came up for a week and left the children, so

It was delightful yesterday & quiet.
We are having a mild winter very little rain. Esp to the front he has not had a fire in the dining room.
You must please excuse a short letter this time.
With much love to yourself & sisters, and kind remembrances
to the girls
Ever lovingly yours
Elizabeth
