Dr. K. M. F. Scott,
Rondebosch.

Dear Dr. Scott,

I am writing this short note merely to acknowledge your letter of the 11th inst. and to inform you that I am willing to undertake the task of writing an introduction to the Bushman Dictionary.

At the moment, however, I am at the Pretoria General Hospital for operation and treatment, and the prospects are that I shall remain here until the middle of January next; after that I shall require another week or two to recuperate. It stands to reason therefore that no serious work could be undertaken by me before the commencement of February. If you find this too long, you may frankly say so and approach somebody else, if not, I shall be indeed grateful if in the meantime you furnish me with whatever material is relevant to the matter, including papers and notes left by Miss Bleek, specimen proofs, etc.

Yours sincerely,

J. H. Engelbrecht
