28th July 1891

My dear Mrs Gleeh,

The end of the month is again here, and I have much pleasure in enclosing you the deoft which I hope will reach you safely - By this time I imagine your Sisters are both gone, and you are enjoying a happy time in each others society I only hope you will have lovely Shies and all be well. From Miss Floyd I am glad to hear Helen is so much better, - We are having a very dull week and not much news - In the Eastern Provinces, they are having too much rain, and the Crops are dying, I the Corps Opening -

Miss Belle Lloyd is now Shope Comfortably settled in Hotel, Now the next Miss for all -

At present I have not one daughter at home; Ethel has my Down Stairs going back to School, and I certainly miss her Every Minute - Ella Stepped back in about a fortnight, She seems thoroughly to have enjoyed her trip to Hotel, just now Int. Skeggs has gone to Queenstown, and She is with Edith for a few days -

George you would see her Picture. His Picture and is now Looking up for Civil Service, I have not decided yet what he is to do, he would like to be an Attorney - Guy still likes Heidelberg, She makes Verily useful playing in the Church - She seems to like Mr. Dowling the Clergyman, but his life is a deeds known, not by appeals -

We have decided to enlarge Monday Church, and at present are collecting money for that purpose. they also have a Ladies Working Meeting once a week, but going to have a bazaar, but this Sunday to help as they are made -

Mrs. Pilkington is very poorly and it is most distressing to hear her cough - She wishes to be very kindly remembered to you all She is very weak, and can't manage to walk to the gate -

Please remember me kindly to Jesus Christ, and Faith Much love to Family Believe me

Ever Sincerely Yours
H. Wykeham.

The Garden is looking very pretty the Snowflakes are out, and the Crocus, Daisy &c have two Needle ness, the Peach Trees.
