

Henri sends her love & hopes so you are none the worse for the cold wind yesterday -

Not fully at all sure of my messenger getting this to you unopened I wish acct I have quite for this funny note In window paper
yours J. K. -

[16 Nov. 1862?]

I just write a line to say that we fear that even should this wind go down & make it possible for us to go - we don't think afternoon we have still such an immense deal to do & see to that we could scarcely possibly have the time for it - & soon have also remembered your promise of Oct. 21st. about
- day the even were it not for this we now find there literally is not time to go -
