

Lucy wishes me to say that as I wish her to be with me this morning to see the lawyer & Mr Harris has ^{plenty of} work to go on with, she will go about the paste later in the day — Loni has a good many things to buy for me today we must be got without delay but she will manage to go to the house ~~there~~ ^{in the} afternoon & she wants you to let Dom wait for the pasting till she comes —

My darling

I send the letter for Capt Strutt - please read it & then seal it with my seal & the I send - & if you will take it to Anderson as soon as prop^{ble} because Capt I comes on shore ^{there} early every morning so you may just catch him if you can go there before going to the Fairbridge - I also hope. Darling you are pretty well today - I am very - I was unhappy so of you all yesterday - With love love your penman.

Monday - after 9 -

My darling

I trust you entirely all - I all - I darent say any more now for fear of making you too late for Farnbridge -
You have written & Mr Kend for me - I wish and will all you say - & then we can have a good long talk all it all as soon as he is gone I send you letter already written Dear to him is suffering & good deal today - I shall of course be much glad to see Mr. K.

~~Mr. K.~~ care to talk with you - I mean the last you showed me here - Goodbye for now dear
your own friend
I don't see Mr. K. but but you can bring them there is no need for you to be troubled with ^{any} because the only parts we are obliged to say we repeat after the clergyman - except "I will" wh. our hearts I know are too full of it easily forgot - I re-gained the the A B C & send it you darling - Remember that I with entirely I can't say how entirely, to leave it all to you - with full trust in whatever decision you may come to -

I send also a little parcel entrusted to me for you by dear Aunt May Anne - poor Father's eldest sister I do wish to give it you yesterday but my hurry for got - I know you can bribe all she says. I mean as her meaning it. Whatever that may be - say this, because she told me she had put a subtle note inside - & I felt that Mr. H. & Mr. H. conduct may have given you such a shock about English people (only she is Welsh) that you not so easily believe again - Goodbye for now your darling your Gemma Oh I see

BC 151 CB. 3, 4

just remembered you got this money ^{again} to ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~cheque~~ ^{cheque} for the rest of that £200 w^h I have - but I'm with change it for me to Christroot & then I can give it you darling - I know you with understanding by saying this - because you know all that mine is yours too, & has been so in my heart - mine ever since we were engaged.

So take care of yourself - for my sake - ^{anxious} ^{am your own}

1/4 post 4 - I'm just coming - I've only just entered your little bag to return it by him to want say more say
 - no note - therefore not

76 Oct. 1844 Max wrote me your Monday - Part 13 - as well as your own my darling - so very very

I send you my book with a matter at the marriage service that part I have & I thro' talk of it w^h is now always omitted - as Carl has been at every wedding I've been at - I trust with he now

The long & short of it is I want to ask Mr. G. to leave out (w^h he has the perfect right to do - it does not at all affect the service itself - as I fear I not w^h be held able to stand so long -

I think you will find your little prayer book more useful to have than mine - but just as you like - You know perhaps better - & otherwise up this it - & even then I don't think we will get finished - I merely say all this just to show you dearly how it is & what peremptory reason there is / ^{most} granted as me for it on your acct / for calling the time we two were so long for to Thursday -

I think that it will have been better for Lou (whom I as fear is quite ill by over exertion in her present state) did we ^{two} make up our minds to Friday at once - but she thinks it possible to be ready by Thursday & so of course wishes it to be that - But this we can speak of to-morrow - I only wanted to let you without delay of how it ~~it~~ ^{it} must be this one day's delay - I am as grateful ^{as} dearly - with all of love & affection Yours

Please

Monday, Evy

My dear - Many thanks for your letter - I don't answer any of it now but want to tell you how dear Louie has come home very poorly - & we have been thinking over all that we still have to do, & find to our sorrow that even the bare necessities can not be accomplished in the way & to mind & row without such fearful hurry & over fatigue as must I fear make us both ill. certainly it is not quite, as dear Louie, the I get happier and keep me

Tuesday morning

We kept on to go to Hill for a parcel we need - know with you with me & do so - My best thanks for you with your own darling - I want answer it now pay to get the law paper again

Yr. com.

My darling - BC 151 CB 57 Part 3000 - Shoba's arrival with the enclaved from home did not wake me, so she has been back home 19 1/2 an hour dearest - I am so sorry I have been busy you in all the time wait - I send it at once for you to see - I conclude from it that she refuses all offer to fetch her - but will come some time body of her own accord - I will even say ten you see - if you like to order any cabman -

Your Emma -

3 dear - Your dear words such a comfort to me - Yes come at 3 unless the letter when Mr K sends it & you get it (I don't) should determine you otherwise - we are not very flourishing this morning but shall be able to get some by 4 - I send the holder of this Post & Porter the letter by with the neither of us take (with equal thanks to you dear)
 Yours own Jennie

I've been getting on nicely with things & am sure that all essentials will be ready for the rest you know what I feel —
