

End of [19 Nov. 1862?] BC 151 C8.39

My dear - I am writing one to express love - Thanks for your dear note & to say that nothing (save an act of God) shall prevent our marriage or later as for I am concerned - by I, I mean also Lond.

Please read Mr Reed's answer & send me also of you when he brings us what time you find for coming to see me afterwards - find as you like after allowing the needful time (anytime - 11/2) for his journey about my the journey - I shall write and the

I don't doubt ^{mean} ^{old} ^{me} ^{but} ^{now} ^{difficult} ^{her} ^{you} ^{really} ^{ill} ^{why} ^{what} ^{so} ^{draw} ^a ^{days} ^{today} however I don't doubt ^{mean} ^{old} ^{me} ^{but} ^{now} ^{difficult} ^{her} ^{you} ^{really} ^{ill} ^{why} ^{what} ^{so} ^{draw} ^a ^{days} ^{today} of her being misunderstood your note to her - I think she could hardly help it not knowing an iota of all our private past & but both of our inner presents - this I who do so of course quite understand - She with too much delicacy - If when she knows you better Goodbye for now darling your own feminine I am so glad you are better - she is in a happy state & ever well her dear